Regulations

ITTF-Regulations apply to this tournament and accordingly to DTTB- and WTTV-regulations, except from the time-out rule.

Matches are played without time-out!!

Prohibition Speed gluing

The appropriation of glue with toxic fleeting solvent is forbidden. This applies also to not surrounded rooms. There will be controls in progress, usually before game. If there is a positive finding, the player will get the chance for a unique racket change. Is this racket also positive tested, the game would be count for lost. In reasonable suspicions, the head referee can control the racket post game. If there is a positive finding post game (single and double) the game would be count for lost.

Indices: solvents are not only included in glues, also in the rubber, rubber-cleaner or in edge tape. All these things can be a reason for a positive test. The use of a racket, which is positive tested, is forbidden, no matter how it has resulted in positive test.

Mode

The tournament will be carried out as age-group-tournament for singles and teams (separate for boys and girls). To an age-group belong all kids that are born between 1st January and 31st December of the particular age-group.

Offered performances

- 3 days tournament (team and single) including voluminous supporting programme
- Home match of Borussia for a shortened price (e. g. with Timo Boll, Christian Süß)
- activities with national players (e.g. the team of Borussia Düsseldorf)
- training with professional coaches
- poster of Borussia Düsseldorf
- participants goody bag
- starter number, which at the same time is the number for taking part in the tombola
- games at mini-tables
- interviews with top-players
- table-tennis-fair (andro presents rubbers, woods, table tennis-fashion a.s.o.)
- consulting of tutors, teachers and coaches by the manager of our Bundesliga-team Andreas Preuß, by the coach Danny Heister and by the team of the andro tt-school
- many surprises

Notice

Due to the success last year an age-group for 16 year-olds will be part of the tournament again. This group take part in the single-competition of age-group 1994 and in team-competition in class 1994/95 (look at single and team tournament)

Singles

Boys and girls of the age-groups 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and younger (see NRW-Talent-Cup)

Mode

The preliminary round is carried out in groups. The games are played in best-of-5-mode. For the final result of a group the number of victories is the decisive factor. As two players have the same number of victories the next decisive factor are the comparison of sets, followed by the direct comparison (victories, sets, balls).

The first and the second of a group proceed to the main draw, which is played as KO-system. The third and the fourth of a group have the chance to play the consolation-round at mini-tables.

Indices

Please specify the performance niveau of players who are listed in national/county rankings in the entry form. Example: No. 3 of national (junior) list

Generally nobody is entitled for a seeding.

Consolation-round

For third and fourth of groups in single-competition

Singles

All participants, that finish the preliminary round on 3rd or 4th place, have the chance to take part in the consolation-round played on mini-tables. In every age-group we are looking for the champion. The consolation-round will start ca. 60 minutes after the preliminary round of the particular age-group is finished.

Mode

KO-system. It will be played one set until 15. The serve changes after to played points (we reserve the right to change the mode).

Team

Boys and girls of the age-groups 1994/95, 1996/1997, 1998/1999, 2000 and younger

In all age-groups it is possible to play with players of different age-groups (e.g. 1996/97).

Mode

Modified Corbillon-System (Team-System). A team consists of two players. Teams with one boy and one girl are not possible to register. The tournament is played in KO-system.

Order of the games

A 1 vs B 2, A 2 vs B 1

double

A 1 vs B 1, A 2 vs B 2

The team-matches are won if one team reaches 3 victories (3:0/3:1/3:2).

Decisive for the team-competition is the notified order of the players in the entry form, which is to be made according to player's skills. It is not possible to change the order during the competition.

Players without a partner from their own club or school, who want to play in a team, can be registered as team-player without partner. The direction of the tournament will find a partner by lot.

Every player is allowed to play in only one team. Sole exception: Lucky-Loser-Regulation. The tournament - direction reserves the right to allocate a Lucky-Loser - first-round-loser - of the same age-group to the player who did not get a partner by lot.

NRW-Talent-Cup

only for age-group 2001 and younger

Mode

1. table tennis - competition (girls single/ boys single)
 2. condition - competition consisting of, skilfulness - game, standing long jump, throwing the heavy ball, sprint
- (Changes of the disciplines and of the number of disciplines are possible)

Appraisal of results

The places of each of the two competitions (table tennis / condition - competition) will be assessed with points (1 point for the 1st place, 2 points for 2nd place a.s.o.).

The overall result of NRW-Talent-Cup is made up from the valuation of table tennis and of the condition – competition at a ration of 1:1. Winner will be the boy/girl with the fewest points.

Indices

The winners of the NRW-Talent-Cup will be awarded (best three girls and best three boys) as well as the winners of the table tennis - competition. For the table tennis - competition we use normal tables.
